I Often Wondered Why it is the common cry that money is so scanty and poverty so plenty? Why men are badly clad, including boots and hats? Why shabby coats they wear, with many a rent and tear, with breeches many a rent and tear, with dress are out in seat, when they might dress so spring lamb, Southdown mutton and green neat? Now, I shall tell you why. Because they do not buy their clothes of Harry Cohn. If ever sunlight shone upon a man Car-load of bananas cheap at D. Can-Cohn. If ever sunlight shone upon a man who knows how to buy and sell good clothes, our Harry is the man. No clothier better can afford to please his friends, and further all their ends, than he, of whom in rhyme, we sing just at this time. Or, to speak in plain prose, if you need clothing and furmishing goods, and if you want to buy them right, and at the lowest price, go to the Great Western Clothing House, No. 227 Main street.

Dr. Schenck's Standard Reme dies.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's pulmonic syrup, Schenck's seaweed tonic, and Schenck's mandrake pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected. To these three medicines Dr. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The pulmonic syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest, and the lungs begin to hyal.

To enable the pulmonic syrup to do this, Schenck's mandrake pills and Schenck's seaweed tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's mandrake pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's seaweed tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative: the alkalie of which it is lant and alterative; the alkalie of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents the children suits selling at $1 50 per suit, fully worth double the money, at the Great Western Clothing House.

Souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the pulmonic syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his prin-cipal office, corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country. T. J. WALKER 6 CO. LEIDY & Co., 27316 Main, are the cheap and leading hatters of the city. NASHVILLE.

Legislative Proceedings of Yesterday-Arbitration Commissions for Middle and West Tennessee.

Every visitor to Memphis is pleased with Court square, which is truly one of the most charming and unique little parks in the Union. Through the liberality and enterprise of Mr. James Elder, funds were subscribed and a handsome fountain located in the center of the park. We regret the fact that the walks around the fountain are unpayed and frequently so muddy as to deny visitors and citizens the pleasure of loitering or promegnating around this handsome ornament. The city council might expend a few dollars to pave the walks and thereby complete this feature of the park, whose keeper, Mr. Edward Keating, is so faithful in his duties and watchful of the trees, grounds and numerous squirrels that inhabit the place and sport upon the green. Mr. Keating has been keeper of Court square for seventeen consecutive years, during which time he has formed. so as to provide for a change in the manner sport upon the green.
